The third Celtic Connections library conference takes place in the Thistle Hotel, Cardiff from 16th-19th May 2006.

The conference is jointly organised by CILIP Wales/Cymru; CILIP in Scotland; CILIP Ireland and the Library Association of Ireland. Delegates from all four countries are expected. There will be no separate conferences in Ireland or Scotland in 2006. The conference programme will be based on themes of Libraries in a democratic society; Demonstrating the value of libraries; Delivering services in a competitive electronic environment; Celtic culture online; and Reading, language and literacy. Speakers will be announced nearer the time. The Conference Dinner will be held in the National Museum of Wales on Thursday 18th May. A series of library and cultural visits will be offered.

A Trade Exhibition will be held during the Conference in the Hotel, beside the Conference Room.
